SUSPENSION AND CEASE AND DESIST ORDER

AND NOW, this 21st day of November 2018, the Department of Banking and Securities (“Department”), Compliance Office (“Office”), hereby PROHIBITS Leonard Ambrose IV (“Ambrose”) from working in any capacity in any business regulated by the Department, and orders Ambrose to immediately CEASE AND DESIST from engaging in the mortgage business and any other business regulated by the Department until such time as the prohibition is lifted. In support of its Order, the Office states the following:

BACKGROUND

1. The Department is the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania’s administrative agency authorized and empowered to administer and enforce the Mortgage Licensing Act, 7 Pa. C.S. § 6101 et seq., (“MLA”).
2. The Office is primarily responsible for administering and enforcing the MLA for the Department.
3. Ambrose was licensed by the Department as a mortgage loan originator, license no. 63119, with a NMLS unique identifier of 1616838, through the Nationwide Multistate Licensing System & Registry (NMLS).

4. Ambrose's listed address is : Redacted
5. Ambrose applied to be licensed as a mortgage loan originator in Pennsylvania on June 1, 2017.
6. In order to become licensed as a mortgage loan originator, an individual has to take, and pass, a written test for mortgage loan originators (the "MLO test") developed by NMLS and administered by an NMLS-approved provider. 7 Pa. C.S. §6131.1(c).
7. Ambrose initially took the MLO test in Erie, Pennsylvania, on May 23, 2017.
8. Persons who enroll to take the MLO test agree to the terms and conditions of the Rules of Conduct for Test Takers ("Rules of Conduct"), which are presented to test takers electronically at the test center as part of the automated test process.
9. As he was taking the MLO test, Ambrose was observed several times looking at a note hidden between his legs.
10. The testing center staff confronted Ambrose and confiscated the note but allowed Ambrose to continue taking the test.
11. Ambrose achieved a passing score on the test but, as a result of his using the hidden note, the test score was invalidated.
12. In a letter to investigators dated June 7, 2017, Ambrose admitted that he brought the note, and that he took full responsibility for his actions and that he wanted to sincerely apologize for his actions.
13. Ambrose took the MLO test again on June 23, 2017, and passed without incident.
14. Rule of Conduct #2 states that a candidate may not take or attempt to take any personal items into the testing room.

15. Rule of Conduct #3 states "I must not receive or attempt to receive any form of assistance during the test or restroom breaks."
16. Rule of Conduct #10 states "I must not engage in any conduct that would be contrary to good character or reputation, or engage in any behavior that would cause the public to believe that I would not operate in the mortgage loan business lawfully, honestly or fairly."
17. Rule of Conduct #11 states "I must not engage in any conduct that is dishonest or fraudulent, or would adversely impact the integrity of the test or the test procedure."
18. In light of the incident above, the Department was reluctant to issue a mortgage loan originator license to Ambrose.
19. Section 6133(e)(5) of the MLA states that the Department may deny or otherwise restrict a license if it finds that the applicant does not possess the character, reputation, integrity and general fitness to command the confidence of the public and to warrant the belief that the mortgage loan business will be operated lawfully, honestly, fairly and within the legislative intent of this chapter and in accordance with the general laws of this Commonwealth. 7 Pa. C.S. §6133(e)(5).
20. Section 6133(f) of the MLA authorizes the Department to impose conditions on the issuance of any licenses under this chapter. 7 Pa. C.S. §6133(f).
21. In order to induce the Department to grant him a mortgage loan originator license, Ambrose entered into Consent Agreement and Order ("Consent Order") with the Department (Docket #170062), with an effective date of October 3, 2017.
22. Under the terms of the Consent Order,

- a. Ambrose's mortgage loan originator license would be immediately suspended for 30 days beginning October 3, 2017.
  - b. Ambrose would pay to the Department a fine of $2,000.
  - c. No later than November 15, 2018, Ambrose would complete ten (10) credit hours of NMLS-approved ethics education credits. At least five (5) of the credit hours were to be either classroom or classroom-equivalent. Ambrose was to notify the Chief of the Office prior to taking any credit hour courses and also to provide documentation of completion of the credit hour courses to the Chief of the Office.
23. Ambrose's mortgage loan originator license was suspended for 30 days and Ambrose paid the fine of $2,000.
24. Ambrose admitted to the Department that he had not completed ten (10) credit hours of NMLS-approved ethics education credits by November 15, 2018.
25. Additionally, Ambrose did not provide any notification regarding taking ethics education credits and did not provide any documentation that he had completed ethics education credit courses.
26. By not completing the ten (10) credit hours of NMLS-approved ethics education credits by November 15, 2018, and failing to notify the Chief of the Office prior to taking any credit hour courses, or to provide him with documentation of completion of the credit hour courses, Ambrose is in violation of the Consent Order.

AUTHORITY

27. The MLA at 7 Pa. C.S. § 6138(a)(4) authorizes the Department to "issue orders as may be necessary for the proper conduct of the mortgage loan business by licensees..."

28. The MLA at 7 Pa. C.S. § 6139(a)(2) authorizes the Department to suspend a license if the licensee has “[f]ailed to comply with or violated any ... order promulgated or issued by the department under this chapter.”
29. The MLA at 7 Pa. C.S. § 6138(a)(7) authorizes the Department to “issue cease and desist orders that are effective immediately...”
30. Beginning on the effective date of this Order, Ambrose’s mortgage loan originator license, no. 63119, is hereby suspended.
31. Beginning on the effective date of this Order, Ambrose is hereby PROHIBITED from working in any capacity, including but not limited to director, officer, partner, manager, employee, agent, independent contractor or ultimate equitable owner of any business regulated by the Department, until such time as Ambrose receives notice from the Department that it has lifted the suspension of Ambrose’s mortgage loan originator license.
32. The Department will not lift the suspension of Ambrose’s mortgage loan originator license until Ambrose completes the ten (10) credit hours of NMLS-approved ethics education as required by and specified in the Consent Order and Ambrose provides documentation of completing those credit hours to the Chief of the Office.
33. Nothing in this Order shall prevent the Office from taking any further administrative action as deemed necessary.

WHEREFORE, the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Banking and Securities, Compliance Office, under the authority stated above, issues this Suspension and Cease and Desist Order,

IT IS SO ORDERED.
